

Leave the Wisconsin no call list alone. What right does anyone have to call my home uninvited to try to sell me something that I don't need or want? The Wisconsin no call list is working and in my opinion: If it ain't broke don't fix it.